Farmers' Exchange Did Business of $116,690.38 in Year.

Middlebury, Dec. 30.—The annual meeting of the Addison County Farmers' Exchange was held at the exchange hall Saturday morning.

The report of the manager showed up to date $116,690.38 of business had been done, with a prospect of a 125,000 worth being done before Jan. 1, showing an increase of $63,000 over 1918.

The exchange has handled 40 cars of grain, three cars of feed molasses, three cars of cement, $7,000 worth of grass seed and 800 bushels of seed corn, and has disposed of 14 carloads of hay and one car of wheat. Following the reading of the report, the meeting entered into a general discussion.

At the afternoon session, Mr. Churchill, the new county agent, gave a short talk on farm bureau co-operation. This was followed by a business meeting and the following officers were elected: Directors, B. O. Wales, W. H. Jackson, W. G. Larrabee and Frank B. Nelson. The directors then elected: President, B. O. Wales; vice-president, W. H. Jackson; secretary-treasurer, B. A. Elliot; H. M. Wells of Claremont, N. H., spoke on the methods of organization, stating that the farmers should co-operate to do away with the middleman's profit. He was followed by F. H. Abbott, district sales manager of the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange of Springfield, Mass., who spoke on the industrial and agricultural league in comparison with the Eastern States Farm bureau. During the meeting 90 shares of stock were sold and pledged. It is expected to have at least 1,000 members throughout the county before the end of the year.

Dr. N. H. Houghton Struck by Trolley Car, Fatally Injured.

St. Johnsbury, Dec. 30.—Dr. Neidhart H. Houghton, who was killed by being struck by a trolley car in Brookline, Mass., Friday, was a native of Barre, where he was born 58 years ago. He was the son of Dr. Milo G. Houghton, who came to St. Johnsbury in the early sixties and was long the leading physician of this section. After graduating from the New York Homeopathic Medical college in 1887, he began practice in Boston and was at the time of his death a prominent nose and throat specialist in that city. His wife was also a St. Johnsbury lady, being a daughter of the late L. D. Hazen, the town's leading lumber manufacturer and for many years postmaster. Dr. Houghton and his family were members of the famous summer colony at Caspian lake in Greensboro, and his death is the tenth in this colony in the year 1919.

Just Like Him.

"How was the banquet?"

"Fine. Father gave the toast to the ladies."

"He did, eh? That's just like him, letting on to a lot of other women that he's so kind and considerate, when he wouldn't make toast for me in the morning if my head was splitting open."—Detroit Free Press.

Willing to Be Taught.

"Do you think you could ever learn to love me?" he asked as he gave her a squeeze.

"I don't know," replied the summer girl, "but go on with the course of instruction."—Edinburgh Sportsman.
